

Aorangi Club Events Calendar 2020

March 10

Linda Olsson
International best-selling author

Linda Olsson, author and immigrant by chance

March 31

Dr Mels Barton
Secretary The Tree Council
Co-ordinator Kauri Rescue

Kauri Dieback Disease and its Impact on New Zealand Forest Health

April 21

Sir Roger Hall

A Playwright's Life

May 5

Dame Lesley Max
Co-founder and Trustee of Great Potentials Foundation

Child Poverty and Equality: some home truths and remedies

May 19

Dr Paul Moon
Professor of History,
Auckland University of Technology

Hate Speech and Free Speech in New Zealand

June 2

Dr Peter Simpson
Writer, Educator, Curator

Colin McCahon: one direction to the Promised Land?

June 16

Ann Brodie
Art Educator and Partner Brodie Estate Wine

Art and Wine: the perception of Excellence

June 30

Anjum Rahman
Project Lead, Inclusive Aotearoa Collective

Searching for Solidarity in the Sisterhood. Tāhono

July 14

Martin Tasker
Television Journalist and Commentator

The America's Cup and Related Escapades

July 28

Dr Jennifer Curtin
Professor of Politics and Director of the University of Auckland's Public Policy Institute

Women, Politics and Parliamentary Culture: 100 years on from the Women's Parliamentary Rights Act

August 11

Professor Susan Morton
Director of Growing up in New Zealand
Centre for Longitudinal Research,
University of Auckland

Turning Ordinary Stories into Extraordinary Evidence

August 25

Philip Wood
President British New Zealand Business Association

Brexit - a political revolution or just a series of random events?

September 8

Nikki Denholm
Director and Humanitarian Photographer, Exposure International and Founder, The Light Project

Somalia, Sex Trafficking and Social Change

September 22

Trixie Vernon Day
Distinguished Professor
Dame Anne Salmond
Department of Maori Studies
University of Auckland

New Zealand History: new ways of thinking

October 6

Dr Erin Griffey
Associate Professor of Art History
University of Auckland

The English Rose: beauty at the Tudor and Stuart court

October 20

Speaker to be advised